My Promises to You

I promise to love you on tired days.

I promise to support your dreams.

I promise to respect your feelings.

I promise to grow with you.

I promise to always choose you.

Still so much life to live together...

More trips.
More laughs.
More silly selfies.
More quiet evenings.
More arguments and making up.
More growing together.
More dreams coming true.
More love.

Always us. ❤️

Today I celebrate the woman who makes my life beautiful.

Happy Birthday, my love ❤️

Every day with you feels like a gift, but today I get to celebrate the most beautiful part of my life — you.

Thank you for your patience, your laughter, your care, and your endless love. You make my world warmer, kinder, and happier.

I promise to stand by you, grow with you, and love you more with every passing year.

Here's to many more memories, adventures, and quiet moments together.

Forever yours — in this lifetime and every next one,
Pawi ❤️
And I'd choose you again — every lifetime.
